Planning application for mosque at Piccadilly Circus withdrawn

I was certain that I posted about this application earlier this spring to make part of the Trocadero building at London's Piccadilly Circus into a mosque. But on searching for the post it seems I didn't. I must have forgotten.

Anyway, the good news this evening is that the application has been withdrawn.

	Application determined
Dear Sir/N	/ladam,
The applic	cation for Trocadero 19 Rupert Street London W1D 7PN has been determined.
The decis	ion is: Application Withdrawn
You can a	Iso view the decision notice track this application online.
lf you do r	not wish to receive further email updates about this application please click unsubscribe.
Kind rega	rds, ter Planning Department

Had I been less preoccupied in May this, or something like it, is what I would have posted from the