

Prosecution closes its case in Banbury sexual grooming trial

From the BBC reported; A 17-year-old girl has told a jury she was forced to have sex with men in parks in Banbury when she was 14. The girl, who cannot be named, told Oxford Crown Court she “thought it was normal” that she was passed around a group of men for sex.

The prosecution alleges the offences took place in cars, woods or at the defendants’ homes. It is claimed some of the men abused the girls at Spiceball Park in Banbury, at Banbury United Football Club, and other locations in the town centre.
