

Radical Muslim leader's anti-Semitic rants referred for criminal charges

From the argument to ban Hizb-ut Tahrir for so-called hate preaching. However, Fairfax Media has learnt the Director of Public Prosecutions has never laid a charge under the Anti-Discrimination Act, let alone achieved a successful prosecution.

In one of Mr al-Wahwah's videos, filmed on July 25 following a public rally in Sydney against Israel's bombing of the Gaza Strip, he
