

Roundup Weekend

by Gary Fouse

The much anticipated Roundup Weekend should be enough to convince most rational people that ICE is on the right side and the open borders crowd is on the wrong side. Two events over the weekend stand out.

In Tacoma, a 69-year-old Antifa burnout named tearing down a US flag and hoisting a Mexican flag in its place, further winning the hearts and minds of the 2020 voters.

As for how many illegal aliens were actually picked up across the nation, who knows? It seems to have been over-hyped. ICE had announced that its principal targets were those criminal aliens who had already had their day in Immigration court, had been ordered to leave, and ignored the order. That sounds reasonable to me. Yet, the media was all wringing its collective hands worrying about the kids who would return home from church and find their parents had disappeared.

The fact is that our Customs and Immigration officers don't deserve the abuse they are taking from the Democrats, the media, and the left. Their job is dangerous and thankless enough. Now they are simply overwhelmed by the human wave that is pouring across our border. They do not have the facilities to house everybody. Yet, they have to contend with loudmouth idiots like Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez (D-NY) showing up for inspection tours, berating them, and announcing that some female detainee had been told by guards to drink out of the toilet, a claim effectively refuted by ICE officials. Former Acting ICE Director Tom Homan testified before the House on Friday and made Democrats like Ocasio-Cortez and Jesus Garcia (D-IL) look like
