

Stacey Dooley's Panorama about Islamic State brides should be shown in our schools, not vilified

Stacey Dooley's report for Panorama from the Al-Hawl refugee camp in Syria, it was horrifying to see thousands of foreign Isis brides wearing black shrouds, like a flock of malevolent crows.

Even little girls, Stacey was told, are beaten if they don't wear the niqab. (Unbelievably, I've seen girls dressed like that in Islamic school playgrounds in the north of England.)

Dooley has been mocked for being the Panorama Isis brides documentary. That would certainly contribute to a "better understanding" of cultural differences.

Comments are still allowed, and many of the contributors, having had their