

Strasbourg shooting: at least two killed in terrorist attack near Christmas market

From the France 24

French newspaper Le Figaro has reported that, according to the Strasbourg city council, a second police operation underway at Place Broglie, also in the historic centre of Strasbourg, in response to a second suspect believed to be involved in the shooting.

French police have cornered the suspected gunman and a shootout is underway, a source close to the investigation has told Reuters.