

Sydney, Australia: Millionaire Muslim Fraudster Posed as "Battling Single Mother" To Live in Public Housing and Draw Benefits

And although caught out in her brazen practice of grand-scale welfare fraud, and convicted, she is getting a mere slap on the wrist. One may note that she had a "mosque marriage" that was not registered with Australian officialdom; and one wonders just how much of that is going on, and how many other Muslim women of this ilk are fraudulently milking – and overburdening – the social security system.

As reported this week by Lucy Mae Beers for the Aussie branch of the "Daily Mail".

"No Remorse": Millionaire Muslim Fraudster Who Posed as a "Battling Single Mother" So She Could Live in Public Housing, Cries in Court as She Loses Appeal Against Home Detention."

'A millionaire Muslim woman who posed as a "battling single mother" so she could live in public housing for 15 years has had her appeal thrown out of court.

'Rebecca Khodragha, 44, appeared at Parramatta District Court on Wednesday to fight her three months home detention sentence, hoping for it to be lightened to community service.

Me, I'd give her community service; three months at a large animal shelter.. assigned to the job of mucking out and cleaning the litter trays and the dog exercise yards. I wouldn't trust her to feed or care for the animals – she would probably be cruel to them; but, under supervision, she could spend three months doing the rounds with a pooper-scooper. – CM

'The married mother of two, whose husband owns an electrical business which rakes in more than $1 million a year (memo to the authorities, and to any investigative reporter worth their salt; it might be a good idea to look a bit more closely into the business record, customer service record and finances of this so-profitable business, just in case – CM) was given the sentence in 2016 when she was convicted of welfare fraud.

'The court was previously told that Ms Khodragha's husband Khaled Sabsabi owned a lucrative electrical contracting business, which was registered to the housing commission address.

Oops. – CM

'At the same time that Ms Khodragha was claiming welfare benefits, the couple owned two other investment properties – in Lakemba (one of Sydney's most heavily-Islamised suburbs – CM) and Greenacre – which they later sold for a significant profit.

'Justice Martin Sides said the mother of two had an “absence of remorse” and “complete lack of insight” and dismissed the appeal.

Absence of remorse. Complete lack of insight. In other words: the malignant narcissism, coupled with aggression and predatory behaviour toward non-Muslims, that Islam tends to produce in its adherents. For more, see the works of Niccolai Sennels, in particular, “Among Criminal Muslims”. One must remember that robbing and generally doing-down the dirty infidels is seen as meritorious, in orthodox Islam. – CM

'The court heard that despite the fraud conviction, Ms Khodragha is still living in public housing and receives Centrelink payments.

Why? Her payments should have been cut off the instant she was convicted; and she should have been evicted from a property in which she is present on the basis of false pretences. – CM

'Ms Khodragha married husband Khaled in an Islamic ceremony (at which mosque? presided over by whom? – CM) in 1991 but their wedding was unregistered (all the better to be able to defraud the dirty infidels – CM) and the pair have been in a Punchbowl housing commission unit in the city's southwest since that year, 7 News reported.

'Ms Khodrangha's lawyer, Zemarai Kahtiz, argued the 44 year old's offending was from October 14 to 20, 2014 only, and not a longer period as claimed by the prosecution.

'He told the court she made $8,036.40 within those six days.

Suuuuure. Pull the other leg, Mr Mohammedan lawyer, it's got bells on. – CM

"That's the benefit she obtained, not $80,000 or $90,000 as the Crown sees it." he said, "As a result, whatever advantage obtained flows from that date."

'But Crown Prosecutor Antony Di Francesco said Ms Khodragha pleaded guilty to obtaining the rebate and then hiding it from NSW Housing.

"Had she revealed the truth in 2015, they could have conducted an investigation and cancelled the rebates", he said.

'Mr Di Francesco said that by limiting the offending to a number of days, "misconstrues the nature of the charge put to Ms Khodragha to which she pleaded guilty".

'Mr Kahtiz said the mother-of-two has been fired from her job at a medical centre as a result of the court case.

Well, from the sounds of it, her husband's business is very profitable, and so were the proceeds of the sale of two houses. So losing her job – IF she lost it as a result of the court case; it would be interesting to check that claim, thoroughly – is no big deal. – CM

'He also said she is suffering a number of psychological conditions, including anxiety and depression.'

Medical evidence, please. But the examining and diagnosing medical professionals should not be Muslims. – CM

'Ms Khodragha was tearful as Judge Sides threw out the appeal.

Oh, cry me a river, three months' home detention is a mere slap on the wrist, she has no cause to complain. – CM

'According to Housing NSW, 60,000 people are on the waiting list for public housing'.

Might be an idea to go through the list and take a very, very suspicious look at any of the applicants whose names and other details indicate membership in the Mohammedan mob; they might turn out to be fraudsters like Ms Kodragha, spinning fake sob stories in order to game the system. And it would be a good idea, in cases of claimed psychiatric illness or physical disability on the part of persons with Mohammedan monikers applying for pensions, housing, etc, to check whether the physicians signing off on their diagnoses are Mohammedans or Infidels. Furthermore, it would be worth an investigative reporter's while to attempt to find out whether, and where, Centrelink and Department of Housing shopfronts, or indeed any portion of those departments that have the job of processing and saying yes or no to applications for social security assistance of various kinds, are staffed with identifiable Mohammedans. Because... fraud, thy name is

Islam. – CM
