

Syrian Catholic Bishop Accuses Turkey

Here.

The Erdogan regime lets recruits for Daesh in and out of Syria, it lets Daesh fighters recover from battle in Turkey, it lets weapons for Daesh into Syria, but it won't allow Christians to escape from Syria into Turkey. And the Bishop, from the Vatican, has been given permission to speak out. Erdogan's regime won't like that. A little less, a lot less, Western tourism to Turkey is called for. A little less, or a lot less, importing of Turkish foodstuffs – there are apricots in California, after all – is called for. Damage must be done.
