

Tommy's access to visitors curtailed.

Remember Tommy Robinson is a Civil Contemnor, not a convicted criminal. This is the answer Laurence Fox, the actor who is now a political activist, received to a request for a VO (visitors order) to visit Tommy in HMP Woodhill.

We live in a police state.

And to any fool who keeps insisting that @TRobinsonNewEra isn't a political prisoner, I suggest you read this.

I have no faith or respect for any of the organs of state in this corrupt nation. @elonmusk pic.twitter.com/sip1IR0M7c

And it isn't unique.

The same refusal, in some cases the identical letters (other than name and date) have been sent to numerous others recently. A month ago visits were permitted so long as the visitor signed a Non Disclosure Agreement (NDA), but not since late January.

I (and I am not alone in that opinion) suspect this is a Home Office order not a personal decision by the Governor; it isn't good.
