

Teachers at school in Newham that banned hijab were failed by council, say inspectors

From the removed the hijab from the school uniform for girls aged seven and under and tried to curb young children from fasting at school in case they became unwell. Teachers at St Stephen's school in Newham faced a abuse was so vicious that the headteacher Neena Lall was compared to Hitler and the