

Tennessee Department of Health Says Female Genital Mutilation Is Not Our Problem

I hope the Justice Department steps in and straightens this out. This barbaric practice has no place in our society and must be eradicated quickly and completely. State government agencies should be helping. From the