

The Communists Are Just Not Going to Hand Over Power

by Armando Simón

The Communists are going to win this election. This time they will probably not resort to the degree of outright, in-your-face electoral fraud as was the case in 2020 because conservatives and libertarians are on the lookout for the tactics they used last time, although in some states Republicans are just twiddling their thumbs and in my personal experience local Republican parties are only interested in geriatric cliques squabbling with each other rather than being aggressive and being preemptive).

This is not to say that votes will not be suppressed or created by local Democrats.

Rather, they are foregoing the customary cemetery votes for votes by illegal immigrants who are not citizens, but who have been brought in and bribed by tens of thousands of dollars each, either in cash and/or amenities through the process of stripping money away from agencies like FEMA in order to finance the bribery. And, since the hurricane tore through a solid Republican voter base, killing hundreds and leaving hundreds more destitute, the Democrats are secretly besides themselves with glee (the propaganda outlet of the media hivemind are using “fact checkers” in a mad scramble to deny the transfer of money, despite the evidence to the contrary).

Millions of illegals have been brought in—not come in, but brought in, many being shipped by plane from Africa and Haiti (by the admission of the Democrats themselves) while the mouthbreathing Republican politicians stay silent at this travesty, whereas they should be screaming from the rooftops. In many places, illegal aliens have either voted or are prepared to vote with the help of Communists at the same time they deny it is happening.

The media hivemind is likewise quiet.

Even as we speak, caravans of illegal aliens have been organized and are on the way to the nonexistent border.

15 states controlled entirely by Communists and their bureaucrats—and aided and abetted by the local media—do not require a voter ID. Every country in the world requires an ID for voting, but not by Democrat-run areas; they say having an ID is “voter suppression,” and the media hivemind parrots the propaganda. In fact, whenever the hivemind is not drowning the public with a cascade of propaganda (fake news), it is busy suppressing facts, news, and viewpoints like in every other totalitarian regime.

The states that do not mandate an ID in order to vote are: Hawaii, California, Oregon, Washington, Nevada, New Mexico, Minnesota, Illinois, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland, New York, Massachusetts, Vermont, Maine.

Do you actually think the Communists are just going to hand over power?
