

The incident in West George Street #Glasgow is not being treated as terrorism.

Update Saturday morning –

The suspect was an asylum seeker who went on a rampage after complaining about the hotel meals served to him during the Covid-19 pandemic. The knifeman, who was from Sudan, had threatened violence against other refugees and complained he was “very hungry” in recent days after being re-housed in the hotel, an activist told the Latest Tweet from Police Scotland

Police Scotland @policescotland The incident in West George Street #Glasgow is not being treated as terrorism. The investigation is continuing.

As elegraph is now

Glasgow stabbings: Suspect shot dead by police in hotel attack.

1. Police have said the suspect has been shot and has died.
2. Six people remain in hospital with injuries.
3. A police officer was stabbed in the attack and is currently being treated in hospital. They are said to be in a critical but stable condition, Police Scotland have said.

To repeat a comment to the police tweet of course not, they never are.. another lone wolf I see, seem to be a lot of those.