

The Pope's Unbelievable Credulity: Mahmoud Abbas

Here.

Does Pope Francis not know – have the Israelis or others not told him – that Mahmoud Abbas was for decades the dutiful henchman of Yassir Arafat? That he wrote a Holocaust-diminishing, if not outright denying, thesis in Russia (the actual writing may have been outsourced, as so many doctoral theses by foreigners were, to Russians)? That he is a corrupt and vicious man, who has diverted many millions in aid for his own use, and for the use of his two “businessmen” sons now doing so well in Qatar? That he has consistently honored, with the naming of squares and streets and buildings, terrorists who have blown up pizza parlors and busses and beaten to death little Jewish children? Where does he get his information from?
