The Protocols of Soros

by Richard Butrick (September 2016)

×

George Soros began his philanthropic activities when he established the Open Society Foundation in 1984. The foundation funds a range of global initiatives "to advance justice, education, public health, business development and independent media." more>>>