

The Worldview of Obama's Point Man on Iran Deal

Anti-Israel conspiracy theories are becoming part and parcel of the Left in general. Adam Kredo writes in the State Department's article praising Iranian Quds Force Chief Ghassem Suleimani, who is directly responsible for the deaths of Americans abroad.

Suleimani, who is listed as a terrorist by the U.S. State Department, will have international sanctions against him waived under the parameters of the nuclear accord.

In another posting from Feb. 5, Eyre links to the website LobeBlog, which is viewed by critics as anti-Israel and regularly attacks neoconservative pundits."
