

Through My Eyes

by Phyllis Chesler

And so, Fortune's Favorite, Lin-Manuel Miranda, has been accused of choosing performers for the movie version of his play, "In the Heights," who indeed may be Latinx—but who are too "light skinned." Once this kind of "race" rage and anguish is unleashed, nothing is ever enough, it will shame all the "Karens" in the world as well as the very best of their own.
