

Today Fatah Celebrated The Coastal Road Massacre, "A Most Courageous Victory"

And more than doubled the number of civilians murdered, so proud are they of this deed of derring-do. They invited "friends and journalists." Did any, will any, Westerners – non-Israeli – journalists cover this event? Will any of them begin to explain what Israel faces, and what, already, other peoples in the Western world are starting to face? It's the same Muslim doctrine, it's the same Qur'an and Hadith and Sira, it's the same refusal to believe that non-Muslims have permanent rights to land anywhere, the same refusal to believe that non-Muslims have any rights at all, save those which Muslims choose to grant them. In France, in the United Kingdom, in Australia, in the Netherlands, in Denmark, in dozens of other countries, the best-prepared non-Muslims, the ones who refuse to ignore both the evidence of the Muslim texts and the observable behavior of Muslims all over the world, have already understood this. It's their task to make others do so as well.
