

Tourist Jihad

By Phyllis Chesler

A Man Goes to Tel Aviv from the USA and...

Tourist
Jihad. Are
radical Islamists,
who were born in Morocco
but have American
green cards,
now going to visit Israel
in order to stab and

murder random Israelis in the street?

Is this a new form of Jihad? Jihad travel?

Methinks: That a shame and honor culture, one which is invested in permanent revenge feuds at home and aggressive Islamic Jihad abroad—may pay better attention if they are shamed. I hate to share what shaming might include. The Pakistani police who interrogate terrorists know of one thing to elicit information as well as a confession.

Go, look it up. It cannot come from my lips. But think BIG. Think right out of the box. And, of course, as Israel has just done and rather brilliantly, continue to beat them militarily, destroy all their below-ground and above ground armaments.
