

UN Human Rights Council Will Hold Special Session On Israeli 'Actions' In 11-Day Gaza War

by Hugh Fitzgerald

The United Nations Human Rights Council, well known for its grotesquely unbalanced inquiries into the behavior of Israel, whose actions receive more attention from the UNHRC than do the actions of any other country, has just announced that it will be holding a special session to look into Israeli actions in the 11-day Gaza war that just concluded. A report on this UNHCR session is here: "UNHRC poised to approve war crimes probe into Israel on Gaza, Jerusalem," by Tovah Lazaroff, Jihad Watch.
