

Walsall taxi drivers charged over 'child sex abuse' of teenage girl

From the Midland's newspapers Walsall Advertiser

Three Walsall taxi drivers have been charged with child sex offences against a teenage girl. They are:

Amjad Khan, 35, of Durham Place, who is charged with inciting a child to engage in sexual activity in 2014.

Zahoor Ahmed, 45, of Alexandra Road, Palfrey, who is charged with engaging in sexual activity with a child in 2014.

Nawaz Ahmed, 35, of Hucker Road, Pleck, is charged with three counts of sexual activity with a child in 2014 and taking an indecent image of a child in 2014.

Amjad Khan will appear before Walsall Magistrates Court on Tuesday, March 1 with Zahoor Ahmed and Nawaz Ahmed set to appear seven days later on Tuesday 8 March. All of the charges relate to one teenage girl.

Sentinel is a long-running West Midlands Police initiative to target child sex offenders and to encourage victims of exploitation to speak out about their attacker's crimes. Details can be found at www.west-midlands.police.uk/