

What Has Come Over The Gatestone Institute?

In Memoriam: Deah Shaddy Barakat, Yusor Mohammad Abu-Salha, Razan Mohammad Abu-Salha

Gatestone Institute strongly condemns all such acts of Islamophobia.

This is what I found today at the webpage of the usually excellent Gatestone Institute. Who decided this should be put up? Who wrote, who thought it fitting to write, "Gatestone Institute strongly condemns all such acts of Islamophobia" when there is no evidence to suggest, and plenty of evidence to suggest otherwise, that anti-Muslim animus (let's not use the loaded word "Islamophobia" please) had anything to do with the killings in Chapel Hill. Youth wants to know.
