

Why We Can't Connect the Dots to Prevent Jihad Attacks

by Jerry Gordon (July 2016)

In the wake of the Orlando Pulse gay nightclub massacre that took 49 lives, injuring 53 others, a number of questions have arisen about why the FBI investigations of the perpetrator, Omar Mateen, didn't prevent him from carrying out his homicidal jihad. more>>>