

Yet Another "Mentally Disturbed" Muslim, Faisal Hussein, Shoots 14 People, Murders Two

There seem to be an awful lot of 'mentally ill' people running amok, mass-murdering – or trying to mass-murder – people in public places of late, in numerous countries across the Western world, and a great many of them seem to be Muslims. Funny, that.

Hot on the heels of the attack in Lubeck, Germany, carried out by a 'mentally disturbed' Muslim with a knife we have a murderous attack in Greektown, Toronto, Canada, where a 'mentally disturbed' (or at least, his family claim he was) Muslim man with a gun shot 14 people and murdered two of them.

As reported by Australia's ABC just yesterday (I caught up with the news, today, Aussie time).

"Three dead (this was later revised down to 2 – CM) after "emotionally disturbed" man shoots 14 in Toronto'.

'Three people are dead after a gunman (sic: a Muslim gunman; and he was no teenager, he was 29 – CM) shot 14 people, including a young girl (a little girl; she was ten years old – CM) in Canada, police say.

"Three people are dead". In fact what happened is that the Muslim murdered a little girl and a young woman and was then killed – good riddance! – by the police. – CM

'The incident happened (sic: the Muslim ghazi raider carried out his murderous attack – CM) on Sunday local time in a Toronto neighbourhood known as Greektown.

Interesting that the Muslim chose to carry out his attack there. Probably no coincidence, since Greeks are uppity infidels par excellence, having shaken off the yoke of Islam in the 19th century. – CM

“Other than the shooter, we have a young lady that is deceased”, Toronto police chief Mark Saunders said.

‘Mr Saunders also said the young girl was in critical condition.

‘Toronto Police later confirmed that a second victim died from the mass shooting.

‘Police spokesman Mark Pugash said the condition of the other victims was not yet known.

‘He said it was too early to say whether the shooting was an act of terrorism.

*Let’s see what comes out in the wash... One hopes that if the mohammedan was howling allahu-akbar as he fired his gun at innocent unarmed people in restaurants and cafes, somebody – or more than one somebody – heard it loud and clear, and that perhaps somebody even had the presence of mind to record it. – CM*

‘Witnesses heard many shots and described the suspect walking past restaurants and cafes and patios on both sides of the street and firing into them.

Reminds me of the attacks on cafes that accompanied the Muslim mass-murder of concert goers at the Bataclan in France. – CM

‘John Tullock said he and his brother had just gotten out of their car when he heard about 20 to 30 gunshots.

"We just ran. We saw people starting to run, so we just ran", he said.

Not a good idea. Better to hit the deck, flat as you can, and preferably behind something really solid. – CM

'An army of police, paramedics and other first-responders soon descended on the scene, while local residents, some in their pyjamas, emerged from their homes to see what was happening.

Again, very foolish. If bullets are flying you should not be out in the open. – CM

'Toronto councillor Paula Fletcher told the CP24 media company she heard (from whom? his psychiatrist? really? this fast? – CM) that the gunman was emotionally disturbed.

Oh, suuuure. Like all the other Muslims who've been murdering people or trying to, in the streets of western cities, in multiple different countries, over the past five years and more.. And always in very similar ways..- CM

"It's not gang related. It looks like someone who is very disturbed", she said.

Or who belongs to a cult that authorises the mass-murder of non-adherents? – CM

'Another city councillor, Mary Fragedakis, also said she heard (again, from whom? his psychiatrist? have you seen his medical history, already? I don't believe it – CM) the gunman was disturbed.

Cannot anybody use the four-letter word, "evil"? – CM

'Ms Fletcher said for it to happen in an area where families were gathering for dinner was a tragedy.

Oh, pleeeeeease. A gas explosion due to a mechanical fault would be a tragedy. But somebody marching down the street looking into cafes and restaurants and deliberately firing at people is not an accident, it is malice aforethought. This bloke chose this location precisely because it was a soft target; because families – infidel families, filthy kuffar families – would be gathering there. – CM

‘Toronto police deployed dozens of additional officers over the weekend to deal with a recent spike in gun violence in the city.

I’ve a better idea. Get the Canadian government to stop importing Muslims, and get it to expel all those already present. And then an awful lot of the violence that’s been ‘spiking’, and in particular, attacks of this kind by those ‘mentally’ disturbed people who so very often turn out to be Muslims, will stop.

And so to the second report, which told us the murderer’s name. Faisal Hussein. And we discover that the claim that the poor dear was ‘depressed’, forsooth, comes from his family. Do we have to believe them? And in any case: even if a Muslim is mentally ill, does that mean that when he attacks and kills kuffar, it isn’t jihad? – CM

<http://www.abc.net.au/news/2018-07-24/canada-shooting-victims-identified-as-girl-10-and-woman-18/100281>

“Police Name Faisal Hussain as Toronto Gunman in Shooting (sic: in Shooting Attack – CM) that Killed (sic: Murdered – CM) Two and Injured (sic: Wounded – CM) 13.

‘The gunman who killed two people (that is:: who murdered a girl-child and a teenaged girl – CM) and injured more than a dozen more when he opened fire on a Toronto street (when he shot people in cold blood in a Toronto street – CM) has been identified as 29 year old Faisal Hussein.

*Where is he from? Where was he born? And why the h*ll was his family allowed to enter and settle in Canada in the first* place? – CM

'Hussain killed (murdered – CM) a 10 year old girl and an 18 year old woman (but isn't an 18 year old a 'teenager'? it always is, if the press is talking about a hijabette – CM) and injured 13 others (all of whom he intended to murder – CM) in the attack on a busy restaurant-filled street. He then died after an exchange of gunfire with authorities.

'It was not immediately clear whether he killed himself or was shot by police.

Either way, Canada is rid of him. – CM

'In a statement, Hussain's family said he "had severe mental health challenges, struggling with psychosis and depression his entire life".

But lots of Infidels have similar issues and don't walk down a street firing a gun into restaurants. Incidentally: have his medical records been made available to police? And here's a question: who diagnosed his mental issues? A Muslim or a non-Muslim doctor or doctors? Was he on a disability pension, etc? – CM

"While we did our best to seek help for him throughout his life of struggle and pain (oh, cue the tiniest violin in the world – CM) we could never imagine that this would be his devastating and destructive end", the Hussain family said.

Oh, suuuure. What mosque do they, did he, attend? – CM

'The family members said their hearts were "in pieces" for the victims.

I don't necessarily believe them. Telling the stupid kuffar what the stupid kuffar desperately want to hear... that's my reading, I'm afraid. – CM

'Armed with a handgun, Hussain opened fire on a stretch of Danforth Avenue filled with restaurants and family-friendly attractions in the city's Greektown neighbourhood, the Special Investigations Unit said.

'He walked down the busy avenue shooting.

'Toronto police spokeswoman Meaghan Gray said the victims of the mass shooting included eight women and girls, and seven men.

This evil mohammedan deliberately shot and murdered a ten-year-old girl. A little girl. – CM

"We do not know why this happened", Toronto Police Chief Mark Saunders said, adding he would not speculate about the gunman's motive.

Let's just pretend that this is not eerily similar to a whole slew of other attacks, all carried out by Muslims, with infidel civilian victims, in public places, all over the West, in a very short space of time..- CM

"It's way too early to rule out anything".

Well then: don't rule out Jihad. Don't rule out Islam as a motive and as a 'primer' for the murderer's actions. – CM

'Police did not formally identify the woman and the girl killed in the shooting spree.

They were murdered, not just 'killed'. – CM'

'But local MP Nathaniel Erskine-Smith confirmed the 18 year old victim was Reese Fallon, a recent high-school graduate who volunteered for Canada's Liberal party and was due to attend McMaster University in the autumn to study nursing.

"She was ... smart, passionate, and full of energy. It is a huge loss", said Mr Erskine-Smith, who knew Ms Fallon. "The family is devastated".

'The 13 injured ranged in age from 10 to 59, and suffered injuries ranging from serious to minor, Mr Saunders said.

'Dr Najma Ahmed, of St Michael's Hospital, said five patients had been admitted in serious or critical condition, and that three of the five underwent immediate lifesaving operations.

Why is a Muslim, "Dr Najma Ahmed", the hospital spokesperson?

– CM

'Prime Minister Justin Trudeau said on Twitter, "The people of Toronto are strong, resilient, and brave – and we'll be there to support you through this difficult time".

Spare us the empty platitudes, mate. – CM

'Toronto Mayor John Tory told reporters the city had a gun problem, with weapons too readily available to too many people...

It may; but it also has a Muslim problem. It has a large, aggressive, and rapidly expanding Muslim fifth column, whose members are taught to wage war until the infidels have been forced to convert, or are near-slave dhimmis, or dead. (See Quran 9.29). Remove the Muslims, stop letting in any more, and any issues with guns would be quite manageable.

One may also add that, in other attacks, in other countries, similar sorts of Muslims have used knives, or heavy vehicles, or have wired themselves up as human bombs. Had Mr Faisal Hussain not had a gun, he might have been running amok with a machete or a stiletto. Or he might simply have left a bomb-laden backpack outside a cafe. Or walked into a crowded venue, with an explosive vest, like the mohammedan who murdered all those little girls in Manchester, not so long ago. – CM

'Mr Saunders said the police presence would be increased in the Danforth area following the shooting...
